

The Way of the Leaf

To be one with the air is to act like a leaf. One that travels without resistance, finding its path through any obstacles it may face. On your path to mastering air and joining us as part of the Air Monks, you must prove that you are indeed like a leaf. Follow your way through the maze, acquiring the bits and pieces of logic scattered throughout, like a leaf until you find the exit. Only then can you answer this question. What is the secret of air that we Air Monks have mastered?
